2024

Alaska Shore Excursions | Day Tours

Anchorage to Anchorage

INTRODUCTION

Located on the southern end of Lake Clark National Park and Preserve, Chinitna Bay is home to a multitude of brown bears that come to the bay to feed on the protein rich sedge grasses, copious clams and fish in the late summer salmon runs. Travel by 4WD bus and listen to your expert guide as they share tales of the resident bears and their families. Once at the best location, you will disembark the bus and witness these magnificent animals digging for clams, sunning on the beach or feeding in the meadow or out in the bay. You'll be amazed by their sheer size, and fall in love with the cubs!

Whats Included - Intimate, 90 minute scenic flightseeing float plane tour with window seat and 2-way headset from Anchorage - Up-close guided bear viewing in Lake Clark National Park - Travel by small 4wd bus and on foot to where the bears are most active - Observe brown bears digging for clams and frolicking on the beach - Spotting scope available for viewing and photographing if bears are further out in bay - Snack box - Anchorage hotel transfer to the Lake Hood float plane base
