Day 2, 3, 4, 5 Stillpoint Lodge | Activities

Depending on the number of nights your spending at the lodge you can choose from the following excursions: 3 nights | 1

Excursion; 4 nights | 2 Excursions; 5 nights | 3 Excursions

Option 1. Flyout via Floatplane or Wheeled Plane: Bear Viewing

Depart on a one-hour scenic flight across scenic Cook Inlet to the Alaska Peninsula and the largest brown bear population in the world. Land in a remote mountain lake or river in Lake Clark National Park or Katmai National Park depending on the time of summer, locations vary according to the bears' food sources, and they follow the salmon as the fish make their way from the ocean upriver to spawn.

Option 2. Saltwater Fishing: Halibut or Salmon

Step aboard right at our dock for a full day of fishing in style with our professional and personable crew. The combination of halibut and salmon fishing is the perfect way to enjoy two types of fishing experiences in one day. Spend half a day fishing for halibut then the other half targeting a variety salmon species. Anglers may also catch rockfish, pacific cod, and lingcod depending on the location.

Option 3. Boat, Hike and Kayak: Glacier Lake Kayaking

Embark on a unique Alaskan adventure: boat to a trailhead, then hike 3 miles to where our kayaks are stored on Grewingk Glacier Lake. From there you'll take a guided Alaskan kayak tour toward the crystal blue ice and have the adventure of a lifetime. Paddle amidst icebergs and shorebirds as you approach the face of this ancient glacier. The valley is full of wildlife including moose, black bear, mountain goats and a wide variety of birds.

Option 4. Boat and Bike: E-Biking Adventure

Journey by boat 35-minutes with the E-bikes onboard through a scenic ocean passage full of wildlife, mystic islands, intriguing rock outcroppings, and majestic mountains. Then disembark for a guided, 10-mile electric-assisted bike ride along a remote coastal road that leads to the charming village of Seldovia.

Option 5. Boat and Hike: Grewingk Glacier Lake

Embark on a memorable journey via kayak or water taxi to a secluded trailhead. Guided through a mile of scenic terrain, reach a stunning iceberg-laden lake. Marvel at the majestic Grewingk Glacier backdrop, while immersing in the valley's breathtaking beauty, meandering rivers, and towering mountains. (3-5 hours | Trail Rating: Easy-Moderate)

Option 6. Boat Cruise: Wildlife Photo-Safari

Kachemak Bay, boasting the National Estuarine Research Reserve, teems with vibrant biological life, spurred by unique water currents that circulate nutrients and marine life year-round. This richness sustains predators, including sea mammals, within the bay. Hosting numerous threatened and endangered species, the bay witnesses the graceful presence of orca, minke, and humpback whales. Around Halibut Cove, myriad aquatic beings often surface, delighting visitors with unexpected greetings.

Option 7. Alaska Culture Experience: Homer or Seldovia.

Discover the heart of Alaska in Homer or Seldovia, two pivotal maritime communities offering an authentic look into the daily lives of Alaskans. Delve deep into the rich culture and witness firsthand the mechanisms of these essential coastal towns. Embrace the allure of Alaska, as its breathtaking landscapes and magnificent wildlife promise an unforgettable journey.

Back at the lodge at the end of each day you'll enjoy recounting the day's adventure during daily cocktail hour, over your gourmet dinner or later in front of the fire.

On free days where the above excursions are not included, your adventure continues with a variety of included activities suited to a wide range of energy levels and interests. Guided hiking, sea kayaking, paddleboarding, bird watching, whale-watching and tide-pooling are all available right from the lodge. If you crave relaxation, you may enjoy a massage, yoga and fitness training, or the soothing sounds of a waterfall from the cedar hot tub gazebo. Enhance your mindfulness with forest bathing or by walking the path of the labyrinth.

Day 4, 5, 6 Stillpoint Lodge | Departure

Spend one last leisurely morning at the lodge, then meet your chartered flight at the dock or take the boat transfer by noon back to Homer Harbor. A final transfer is included back to your hotel or the airport to begin the journey home.
