INTRODUCTION

Dive into the enchanting allure of winter in Quebec City, a celebrated UNESCO World Heritage site. As the city dresses itself in a pristine white blanket and the soft glow of twinkling lights, your private walking tour awaits. Stroll down historic cobbled streets, feel the age-old charm of its storied architecture, and immerse yourself in the yuletide joy of Old Quebec. The allure doesn't end with the city's ancient alleys; prepare yourself for a spellbinding retreat at Hotel de Glace. This fleeting masterpiece stands as the sole ice hotel in all of North America, presenting an intoxicating mix of radiant ice sculptures and snug snow chambers. Envelop yourself in plush furs, savor drinks from glistening ice glasses, and let the amorous embrace of a Canadian winter captivate your very soul. An adventure like no other beckons!

DETAILED ITINERARY

Day 1 Quebec City | Arrival

Upon your arrival in the enchanting Quebec City, a private transfer will whisk you away to your hotel, nestled within the heart of the historic walled city. With the remainder of the day at your leisure, embrace the opportunity to wander through this winter wonderland, soaking in its timeless charm and festive atmosphere. Welcome to a snowy slice of Canadian heritage!

Day 2 Private Walking Tour of Quebec City

Embark on a captivating journey through Old Quebec, exploring both its Upper and Lower towns. Delve into its rich history, marvel at its exquisite architecture, and soak in the culture that permeates every corner. Traverse the Dufferin Terrace, enjoying breathtaking views of the Chateau Frontenac, the St-Lawrence River, and the Plains of Abraham-Citadel. Witness the city's fortifications, the Ursuline's Convent, City-Hall, and the Seminary courtyard, all nestled among stunning churches within the walled city. Descend to the Lower Town, the heart of Quebec City, where the Old Port Marina meets a charming 'antique & art' district. Your enlightening journey culminates at "Place Royale", Quebec City's birthplace, before concluding on the historic Petit Champlain Street, a testament to centuries of commerce.

Day 3 Quebec City to Ice Hotel

Today a private transfer will deliver you to Hotel de Glace. Enjoy a behind the scenes tour of North America's only ice hotel. Your tour will wrap up at the hotel's ice bar, where you'll carve your own ice glass and enjoy a cocktail. Accommodations are at the Ice Hotel in a Premium Theme Suite with Fireplace. We have also reserved a room across the street at the Hotel Valcartier, in case you get chilly.

Day 4 Quebec City | Departure

This morning, indulge in the comfort and amenities of your room at Hotel Valcartier, situated conveniently across the street from the Ice Hotel. Once you've gathered your memories and belongings, a private transfer is prepared to take you to the Québec City Jean Lesage International Airport. Safe travels!
