INTRODUCTION

Since 1991, Queen Charlotte Lodge has been hosting guests and showing them the magic of Haida Gwaii through unparalleled customer service and exceptional experiences. Often called the Galapagos of the North, Haida Gwaii is home to Killer and Humpback whales, seals and sea lions, eagles and sea birds and exceptional Salmon and Halibut fishing! Quite literally along the 'salmon highway', thousands of runs of salmon stop by to feed and grow during the summer season. Land your dream catch (and plenty more!) on this adventure to British Columbia's west coast.

DETAILED ITINERARY

The Queen Charlotte Islands Fishing Lodge is a premier destination for anglers seeking an unforgettable fishing experience in the pristine waters surrounding the Queen Charlotte Islands, also known as Haida Gwaii. This remote and breathtaking location offers some of the best fishing opportunities in the world.

Day 1 Vancouver to Queen Charlotte Lodge | Flight + Guided Fishing

Meet at Vancouver Airport's South Terminal early on Monday morning for a 75-minute chartered Boeing 737 jet flight to the small town of Masset on Haida Gwaii. From here you will board an executive style Sikorsky 12-person helicopter for a short 15-minute flight, landing literally on the front lawn of the resort. Enjoy a quick resort orientation session and brunch, then head down to the resort dock and get suited up for some guided or self-guided fishing! Later in the day, return for fish weighing at the famous Bell Ringer Bar and then head up for dinner.

Day 2 - 3 Queen Charlotte Lodge | Guided Fishing

Choose a time to head out on the water with or without a guide. Breakfast starts at 4:00 am for the real keeners! Put together your lunch, snacks and beverages from a fully stocked lunch buffet and then head out to fish until 8 pm on the grounds. Unique to QCL is the 100 ft. M.V. Driftwood, a converted and modernized tug boat that is anchored on the grounds and accessible for your lunch needs. Enjoy a full BBQ on the go as well as the finest floating bar in Haida Gwaii, then stretch your legs, take a body break and relax. Head back on to the water until you decide to return to the resort. Bell Ringer and then dinner – here's to another great day.

Day 4 or Day 5 Queen Charlotte Lodge to Vancouver | Flight

Today you will depart from the resort around 9:00 am by helicopter back to Masset. Catch another charter flight back to Vancouver by Boeing Jet and arrive around 12:30 pm.

INCLUDED
